The number of horses, including colts, on farms January 1, 1938, is estimated by the Bureau of Agricultural Economics at 11,163,000 head, or a reduction of 25 per cent from the year earlier. This was a larger reduction than in 1936. The number of mules on farms was only 2.1 per cent less than a year earlier.

The number of hogs on farms on January 1 is estimated by the Bureau of Agricultural Economics at 44,148,000 head, or 3.3 per cent more than a year earlier. This is the largest number of hogs on farms since January 1934, but is still much below that of any year in the 30-year period before 1936. Nearly all of this increase occurred in the Corn Belt states. The value per head was $11.21 which is 68 cents lower than a year earlier.

Post Office Announces Essay Contest

OPEN TO EVERY HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT IN BULLOCH COUNTY WITH OPPORTUNITY TO WIN TRIP

"Wings Across America" is the subject of a nation-wide school essay contest announced by Postmaster Geo. T. Groover who has just received the rules and regulations governing this contest. The essays are to be based on the progress, dependability and future possibilities of this method of modern communication. This contest should create more interest in aviation than has ever been known in the nation, as every high school pupil in America has an even chance to win one of more than a hundred valuable prizes.

Mr. Groover states that every high school pupil in Bulloch County is urged to enter this contest. There will be two prizes for some boy or girl in every state in the union. The first state prize will be an airplane trip from the winner's nearest airport to Washington, D. C., and return. The second state prize will be a trophy to be presented by the Georgia Air Mail Week Campaign Committee.

The essays of pupils winning a trip to Washington and return will be entered in a National contest in which the winner will be given an airplane trip expenses paid to Hollywood, California, for those living east of the Mississippi river, or to Miami, Florida, if the winner lives west of the Mississippi River. The second National prize will be a trophy, while the third will be a plaque to be presented by the National Air Mail Week Committee.

Mr. Groover states that the essays must be submitted not later than May 1, 1938, and all eligible pupils desiring full particulars of the Essay Contest should see either their school principal or postmaster at once.

Arthur Gannon, extensive poultryman, says that recent tests by the United States Department of Agriculture show that hens hatched from small eggs may be expected to lay small eggs. In these tests, the eggs averaging between 23 and 25 ounces to the dozen hatched best, while those under 23 ounces and over 29 ounces hatched poorly. Gannon said that this is the reason the National Poultry Improvement Plan, in which Georgia is cooperating with 41 other states and the Department of Agriculture, has a minimum egg weight as a requirement in each of its five breeding stages.

The Woman's Field Army of the American Society for the Control of Cancer is sponsoring an intensive educational campaign on cancer during the month of April, according to Mrs. A. J. Mooney, captain of Bulloch county.

Mrs. Mooney states that men may become contributing members and donations of more than a dollar are welcome.

Enlistment booths will be set up in the business section of Statesboro on Friday of this week.

'Lady Windermere's Fan' To Be April 21

THIRD ACT BEING WORKED ON WITH COMPLICATIONS ARISING WHICH GIVE INTEREST TO THE PLAY

With work being concentrated on the second act, "Lady Windermere's Fan" is now in its third week of rehearsals. Rehearsals are being held every night at the Women's club, 18

The third act was read through for the first time last week, with the players learning their positions. The first part of the act finds Lady Windermere (Mrs. Everett Williams), and Mrs. Erylme (Mrs. Henry Ellis) in Lord Darlington's apartment, without his knowledge of their being there. They are in a state of concern over Lady Windermere's decision to leave her husband, with Mrs. Erylme urging her not to take such a step.

The ladies, when Lord Darlington (Leode Coleman), Mr. Dumbly (John Temple), Lord Windermere (Gilbert Cone), Lord Augustus Lorton, (Bill Bowen) and Cecil Graham (Harry Allen) enter Lord Darlington's rooms. Between the four men in Lord Darlington's room, in the hearing of the ladies, they give women a general ribbing with Cecil Graham making the states "women always want one to be good. And if we are good, when they meet us, they don't love us at all. They like to find us quite irrefragable bad, and to leave us quiet unattractively good."

CO-OPERATIVE HOG SALE HERE TOMORROW AT G. & F. R. R. PENS

The cooperative hog sale Thursday, April 14, will be held at the Georgia and Florida pens. Most of the hogs entered for the sale are as good as those entered in the last sale two weeks ago. The 224 head of hogs sold in that sale averaged 209 pounds per head.

The sales committee will schedule future sales if those feeding hogs desire them. However, the Thursday sale will be the last one until summer unless hogs are listed with the committee, which is composed of W. H. Smith, L. J. Swinson, John Powell and Wade C. Hodges. Listing may be made in the county agent's office.

Efforts on the part of the committee to move hogs of superior quality so that a premium can be demanded seems to be making progress.

Culpepper Jailed For Plane Theft

FORMER OPERATIONS MANAGER FOR STATESBORO AIRCRAFT CORPORATION ARRESTED IN LYONS

J. O. Culpepper, former operations manager of the Statesboro Aircraft Corporation is in jail here charged with the theft of the Taylor's "Club" airplane belonging to Lamine F. Simmons and C. P. Olliff, officers of the corporation.

The plane was missed Sunday afternoon and caused considerable worry to the owners, each of whom had thought the other was up flying the plane at the time it was missed. Sunday afternoon when Mr. Simmons and Mr. Olliff saw each other they realized that the plane had been stolen.

The plane was located on a field between Lyons and Vidalia, where it was said Culpepper had flown it. Sheriff Mallard went to Lyons Monday morning and returned with Culpepper. Culpepper had been giving flying instructions to a number of students here, in Statesboro and surrounding territory. He was dismissed as an operations manager of the corporation some ten days ago.

Status Of Construction On Burton's Ferry Route From River To Folkston

In bringing Burton's Ferry Route up to date we find that the status of the route is as follows: The Savannah River Bridge is under construction and will be completed in 1938. Briar Creek bridges and approaches are under construction. The grading and draining structures from the Savannah River to Sylvania are completed with grading and drainage structures from Sylvania to Dover under construction. There is no work programmed for the Central of Georgia Railroad between the Ogeechee River bridge and the Savannah River bridge. With one exception the work of way has been secured from the Ogeechee River to Statesboro but no work has been done or is programmed.

On the road by Pembroke the road from Statesboro to the Bryan county line is being graded. From the Bryan county line to Pembroke no work has been done or is programmed. From Pembroke to Hinesville in Bryan county there is no work done nor programmed. From Pembroke to Hinesville in Liberty county the road is being graded. There has been no work done or programmed on the Ogeechee River bridge on the Pembroke and Hinesville road.

In checking the mileage of Burton's Ferry and that of competing routes it is figured that from Columbus to Jacksonville by way of Burton's Ferry route is 304 miles; by way of U. S. No. 1, 336 miles; U. S. No. 1 and Waynesboro it is 329 miles and by U. S. No. 21 and U. S. No. 17 (Augusta to Millen to Sylvania to Savannah to Jacksonville) 317 miles.

800 Kids Sold By Bulloch County Farmers At Annual Easter Sale

Last Friday was "kid" day in Statesboro for Bulloch county farmers, and each "kid" meant $1.10 to the farmer.

More than 800 kids were sold here by Bulloch county farmers at the annual pre-Easter kid sale. Most of these went to the New York markets. County agent Dyer states that the farmers do not go to the trouble of raising them but he is of the opinion that many of them are sold as lambs.

"In the early Spring we have a heavy kid crop and that is one reason we have more of them during Easter season than are marketed before the Thanksgiving and Christmas seasons," He added that the farmers are in need of some cash at this time of the year and since raising kids and goats do not cost the farmer any actual cash outlay as a crop it means practically all profit.

Mr. Dyer estimates that about 200 farmers in Bulloch county raise kids, with some few taking trouble to provide a grazing patch of small grains late in the winter. Otherwise there is no special arrangements made.

These kid sales are conducted by the County Agent who takes bids from buyers and accepts the highest. The co-op sale date is then scheduled to suit the buyers and the kids are assembled. More than 3,000 kids have been sold at Easter sales stated Mr. Dyer.

In all the other counties where referenda have been held an overwhelming victory for repeal has been recorded.

EASTER

For forty centuries, in unbroken column, the race of man had been marching into the shadows, and of all the millions who had descended into the shadowed valley, not one had ever returned. No dead human form through all the centuries had risen up into a post-mortem life. There was in all Earth's area not one empty grave. No human heart believed, no human voice declared that there was such a grave—a grave robbed by the power of a victor stronger than man's great enemy, death. It was therefore a new and wonderful message which the Apostle communicated, when unto the dyin' grade of men he lifted up his voice in the words: "One human form has risen from the dead; one grave of earth is empty; the man Christ, Jesus who was dead, is alive again."

VOTE YOUR CONVICTION TOMORROW

Bulloch county citizens will have the opportunity tomorrow to decide for themselves if they desire to legalize and control the manufacture and sale of alcoholic beverages, or whether they wish to continue in force the so-called prohibition law, which in the past has been a sham and a farce.

We wish to impress upon the voters of Bulloch county the importance of casting their ballots in tomorrow's referendum, regardless of whether they favor repeal or oppose it, so that the results of the election will represent a true and convincing mandate from the people.

LET'S RE-ROUTE HEAVY TRUCK TRAFFIC

Someday one of those large gasoline tank trucks is going to blow up in an explosion on our streets that will rock Statesboro's very foundations.

We have noticed that all heavy truck traffic which passes through Statesboro, these gasoline trucks included, come in and out at a speed far in excess of any possible safety margin. They come in and pile up under the red light at the intersections of the four Main Streets.

It occurs to us that all this heavy truck traffic could be re-routed so that it would not have to come through the business section of the city. Let all such South bound traffic turn left at S. W. Lewis arage, down Hill Street to the railroad, make a right turn and come out on East Main Street between the bus station and the Central of Georgia depot. All North bound traffic would reverse the route, make a right turn at the depot and a left turn at Hill Street to come out on North Main Street at S. W. Lewis' garage.

This is the route the buses use coming in to and out of Statesboro. The drivers state that they had rather use this route. Such arrangement would surely mean a greater safety margin for the automobile drivers of Statesboro and relieve East Main and North Main Streets of that heavy traffic that obstructs traffic.

WHITTLE DOWN THE SURPLUS

It is not the fault of the new Farm Act that cotton is sick. It is unfair to blame the law for something that happened before it was born. Neither is it reasonable to expect it to master a probable 12,000,000-bale carry-over in one year. Most farmers realize that so far as cotton supplies are concerned we are not far from the situation that existed in 1932. The only course open to us is to "hit the saw dust trail" again and gradually whittle down the surplus. If the new act can bring the carry-over to normal within three years it will have proved its efficiency.—The Progressive Farmer.

HOW WE COULD GET BURTON'S FERRY ROUTE

With interest reviving in the Burton's Ferry route, a number of people are asking us how to go about trying to get this route completed as soon as possible. In talking with a number of those who have had the most to do with such projects we have worked out this possible method for obtaining an early completion of the Burton's Ferry Route in Georgia.

First, perfect a strong Route Organization from Sylvania to Folkston, with an active and aggressive outstanding man to head such an organization. Then let each county commissioner group elect either one of their number, or the most progressive, aggressive and outstanding man the county affords to represent them at organization meetings and with power to act for them. If possible the organization should have a paid secretary who could devote his whole time to the promotion of the route in cooperation with the Highway Board and keeping a degree of peace in such an organization.

Second: Start at once with the Highway Board, Bureau of Public Roads, Association of State Highway Engineers, the Governor, our Congressmen, and the U. S. Senators to have this route taken into the Federal Aid System and also assigned a U. S. route number.

Third: Have delegates call on the Highway Board and Governor at least every two weeks from some county along the route. Have interested citizens write the Board or the Governor, so that there will be one or more letters going into Atlanta on this thing every day.

Fourth: Fight as a body and individually for grading contracts all along the route.

Fifth: Bring all the pressure possible to bear on the Board to have the Ogeechee River and Central of Georgia bridges put on the 1939 Federal Aid program.

Sixth: Fight for high type paving material, so that once the route is completed, it won't be closed for repairs. Since the paving is the most important and also the most expensive encountered, the board cannot be expected to pave the whole route in one year unless they use the cheapest material available. Therefore, the paving of this 200 mile stretch can be expected to last at least three years. The ungraded or newly graded counties should help the counties with the oldest or settled grades get their pavement first. Under such a program we could make those with the power to give us this route feel our wishes. With such a concerted program there cannot be any doubt that they would listen to us.

Why, it might even get us the Burton Ferry Route!

REASONS TO GO TO CHURCH

(From the Herald-Journal, by Theodore Roosevelt)

I. In this actual world, a churchless community, a community where men have abandoned and scoffed at or ignored their religious needs, is a community on the rapid down grade.

II. Church work and church attendance mean the cultivation of the feeling of some responsibility of others.

III. There is enough holidays for most of us. Sundays differ from other holidays in the fact that there are fifty-two of them every year—Therefore on Sundays go to church.

IV. Yes, I know all the excuses. I know that one can worship the creator in a grove of trees or by a running brook, or in a man's own house just as well as in church. But I also know as a matter of fact the average man does not thus worship.

V. He may not hear a good sermon at the church. He will hear a sermon by a good man who, with his good wife, is engaged all the week in making hard lives a little easier.

VI. He will listen to and take part in reading some beautiful passages from the Bible. And if he is not familiar with the Bible, he has suffered a loss.

VIII. He will take part in singing good hymns.

VIII. He will meet and nod or speak to good quiet neighbors. He will come away feeling a little more charitable toward all the world even toward those excessively foolish young men who regard church-going as a soft performance.

IX. I advocate a man's joining in church work for the sake of showing his faith by his work.

WORK ON SHEPARD'S NEW TOBACCO WAREHOUSE IS WELL UNDER WAY

The work on the new tobacco warehouse at the corner of College Street and Bulloch Street is moving along at a satisfactory pace, said R. E. Sheppard who is building one of the largest tobacco warehouses in the state here.

More than three-fifths of the floor space in the new house will be of concrete it was learned. The brick pillars which will support that part of the floor which will be wood are complete and work will begin on the concrete section at an early date. About twenty men are now working but a considerable larger number is to be employed in a short time.

The new warehouse will be completed sometime in June.

9 cups sugar, 1 cup water.

Wash and boil berries before measuring. Put sugar and water into preserving kettle, stir and boil until sugar is well dissolved. (This amount of sugar and water gives a very heavy syrup.)

Cook syrup thick as desired, add strawberries and boil 15 minutes (rolling boil). Start timing when rolling boil begins. Do not stir but shake the kettle and skim. Pour into flat pans or trays and shake occasionally until cold. The shaking is the secret of success; it causes the berries to absorb the syrup and remain plump and whole. Put into the jars when cold. Never cook more than three quarts at the time, and it is best to shake all of the time as cooking and occasionally when cooling. This recipe, if followed closely, will produce whole berries suspended in thick syrup and having a bright red color. Store in dark place to keep berries from fading.

CULTIVATE POTATOES EARLY TO ELIMINATE HOEING, AGENT SAYS

A good way to eliminate practically all hand-hoeing in the potato crop is to get in some early cultivation before the plants come up, according to County Agent Byron Dyer.

Harrowing the field diagonally across the rows with a spike-tooth harrow is the first thing to be done, he said, advising that this cultivation be made soon after the potatoes sprout in the ground. Then, this should be followed by harrowing in the opposite diagonal direction before the plants are up to a good stand.

"An ordinary spike-tooth harrow with the teeth slanted backward slightly is the best thing for the first cultivation, and a weeder is preferable for the second time," Mr. Dyer said. "In this way, the crop is not injured as much as when hoeing is done, and it is not so expensive."

ed that they be plowed the first time with a row cultivator. Regular shallow cultivation should be kept up at intervals of from 8 to 10 days, until the potatoes reach the size of a No. 2. Then, a cultivation should be given that will only slightly ridge the dirt to the rows, he added.

The agent advised that, in cultivating the crop during the early growth it is best to keep the ground fairly level. He said that excessively high ridges will reduce the yield per acre.

In cultivating the potato crop after the plants are up, the agent suggested.

Meriwether county 4-H club boys are making souvenir articles for sale at the Warm Springs Foundation, according to G. L. Johnson, extension agricultural engineer, who said this project was started during March under the leadership of Assistant County Agent John Noland. These boys are expecting to make a nice profit from the sale of plaques made of photographs pasted to wood. Shop work is one of the major projects in Meriwether county 4-H Club work, Johnson pointed out.

Paul Marlon, Floyd county farmer, erected an electric light in his farm yard during March at a cost of only 60 cents for materials. The light consisted of a tin pan, a weather-proof socket, and a 200-watt bulb. The light is located between the residence and the milk house and is controlled by a three-way switch, located in the residence and the milk house. Mr. Marlon also plans to install an electric motor on his 40-gallon hand-operated churn. When this is completed, the farm will qualify under the Electro-Development Farm Program.

Your money comes back in fuel saved; in greater home comfort, winter and summer; in added roof beauty. This is the only shingle built with outside solid surface for weather protection; cork layer underneath for insulation. Tests show that it is easily possible for a roof of Carey Cork-insulated Shingles to return its slight additional cost over plain asphalt shingles through the fuel saving in a single winter. Before you re-roof or build, come in or write and get all the facts about this shingle that gives you TWO values at ONE cost.

JIMMY LASTER PLACE SOLD LAST WEEK

The old Jimmy Laster place between Brooklet and Emit was sold last Tuesday by the Statesboro court, to the highest bidder, who was Mr. Jim Williams, of Brooklet. The history of this old farm place is quite romantic. It has been known as the Jimmy Laster Place for over a half century. It was a part of the old homestead of Jimmy Laster's father, Henry Laster. The latter part of the eighteenth century it was willed to Jimmy, who lived there all his life, and now he and his first wife's side by side, in a little cemetery of their own, located on the "Old Jimmy Laster Place". He married three times, his first wife, Lily Martin died ten years before Jimmy died. About ten years ago Jimmy followed her to the little secluded cemetery. Now Jimmy probably loved all his wives, but there is no mistake about his love for his first wife, Lily. He died after she died, he would say, "There ain't nobody like Lily." Surely this was true as for Jimmy was concerned.

The place brought $3,900 dollars, which was used to pay off the debts, and those heirs who had not already sold their share in the will.

Miss Mildred Hagran of Emit spent Sunday with Miss Ruth Cone.

CELERY A SPRING BARGAIN

Celery is plentiful and will be a good buy for housewives all spring, right through to the end of May. Many people do not realize that celery can be cooked, as well as served raw. While it is valued highly for its flavor and crispness as an accessory or chopped up in salads, its cooked flavor is also pleasing.

If very little water is used and if the liquor cooks out of the celery, it is served with it, seasoned and slightly thickened if desired, no food value is lost. Celery is also good cooked in combination with tomatoes, turnips, or carrots. The stalks and the tops may be chopped to give flavor to meat or poultry stuffings.

Dried celery leaves keep well and make good soup seasoning. Celery leaves cut from the celery stalk are easily dried when placed in a pan on top of the stove or in the oven, after baking is finished and the fire has about died out. Leave them in the pan on top of the oven for several

EGGS IN WATER-GLASS

Surplus new-laid eggs may be put down in water glass at any time, if they are handled promptly. During the spring months, if more eggs are laid than can be used in ordinary ways, a supply may be put down for use during the season when prices are high.

The eggs should be put down into water glass as soon as possible after gathering. It is a good practice to candle every egg and to discard the cracked eggs, using only the sound, clean, fresh, fertile, ones. Even minute cracks may cause spoilage and contaminate other eggs in the jar.

To make water solution, boil 11 quarts of water, cool, and add 1 quart of sodium silicate (water glass) and mix well in a non-metal container previously cleaned, sealed and dried. Most drug stores sell water glass.

A 5-gallon crock will hold about 12 dozen eggs and leave room for at least 2 inches of water glass solution above the last layer. This is very necessary. As it is almost impossible to move the crock safely after the eggs are placed in it, it is best to decide beforehand where it is to

COUNTY AGENT GIVES ADVICE TO FARMERS' CANNING VEGETABLES

County Agent Byron Dyer this week gave information to Bulloch county farmers who might be interested in canning vegetables for home or commercial purposes.

He said that selecting the proper varieties, planting at the proper time, and harvesting the crop correctly will help to make a uniform, high quality product. Corn, okra, and tomatoes were the three main crops he discussed.

"The varieties of corn for canning should be of good quality and should have a fairly long maturing period," the agent suggested. "Yellow or white varieties may be used, but the yellow varieties are becoming more popular in commercial canned products."

"It is very important that corn be picked at the proper stage of maturity for canning and the individual ear should be in this stage only about 2 days. Corn is usually at the proper stage for canning when the kernels of the center of the ear first reach a highly glassy appearance."

Varities of corn recommended by the county agent for canning are Norfolk Market, Truckee's Favorite, Hastings Prolific, Golden Cross Bantam, Golden Dent and Jarvis Golden Prolific.

Mr. Dyer said that okra may be planted at the same time as cotton, and will be ready for canning in 50 to 60 days. He suggested that two later plantings be made at 6 to 8 weeks intervals in order to have a supply all through the summer. The green colored varieties are preferable for canning, he stated, among those being Dwarf Green and Perkins' Mammoth. Of the white varieties, White Velvet is probably better adapted to Georgia conditions.

An improved pasture program and a campaign for more livestock work will together to help bring about a more diversified system of agriculture.

More profit will be realized out of the poultry flocks, if proper culling is practiced, feeding problems are worked out, parasites are controlled, and diseases are prevented.

PICTURES OF FARMS MADE FROM THREE MILES IN AIR

County Agent Byron Dyer stated this week that his office has completed plans on all but 9 percent of the 3,295 farms in Bulloch county.

These plans will be blue printed in triplicate so that one may go to the county agent's office, one to the Federal government and one to the farmer.

IT SEEMS IT'S A CAR FOLKS WON'T DO WITHOUT!

WE were pretty sure we had a great car when some months ago we checked the final blueprints on the 1938 Buick.

It had the new and mighty DYNAFLEX engine for sparkling action—the sensationally desirable TORQUE-FREE SPRINGING for a lullaby of a ride.

Looking ahead in that promising day, we figured we had every chance of getting our sales share by reason of what this car gave the buyer for his money.

Now, when times are sterner, it appears we built better than we knew—we've got a car folks just won't do without!

This great new Buick was first introduced to the public last fall. Through September, October, November, it sold in steadily increasing volume.

In a period when sales of other cars were sliding off it went ahead, in one month actually outselling one of the Big Three of the lowest-priced field.

It's still going ahead—not car Number Seven or Eight, as one might expect by its price-class, but one of the season's Four Best Sellers!

There is only one explanation of such a record when made by a car in the thousand-dollar bracket.

Such a car is so good—has so much of value in it—people just won't do without it!

They buy it not only in preference to other cars—they buy in preference to waiting for easier times and readier money-to-spend!

That's the convincing sort of car you're about to drive when you first take the wheel of a 1938 Buick.

If you haven't yet handled a new Buick, you ought to—just to see what such a car is like!

Sunday afternoon Ruth Sowell was looking over site where they will erect a new home. Those lovely pines in front had their share in attracting the Sewells' to this lot. We guess the young couple, either newlyweds or dating couples, have a habit of dropping in late on Saturday nights at Jimmie and Sara Wray's for co-op suppers. It's great fun they say. Understand that Bud Pound is very good as a salad mixer. The Ed Mitchell is housekeeping in an apartment on North Main Street. Overheard young man who was anticipating luncheon at Isabel McDougald's, "Isabel always has the nicest things to eat, and she prepares for parties with so much ease." Another woman remarks, "Well, it's easy for her, 'cause Walter is away from home so much." Jane will have trouble retaining her willowy figure I'm afraid, for there's been devil's food cake and potato salad from Lillian Braswell, cake from Lena Belle Foy, and as food for our esthetic nature there were dewy buds from Georgia Brett and modest violets from Wilfred Bradley.

EASTER BONNETS

Statesboro maids are passing fairly—

They're passing their faces, they're cur-

their hair.

That our maids are lovely we're ready to swear, but their hats, my gosh, are a trial to bear.

And so we've decided to pass on these tips, so the hat you wear won't clash with your lips.

For each young girl there's a definite fashion; to lead her to it is our present passion.

For Carol Anderson, a lovely lass, we suggest a hat trimmed with lots of gladioli and mistletoe.

For Cecile Brannen, naive and frail, we suggest a poke with crumming veil.

Liz DeLoach, how her beauty blooms! Would be adorable with ostrich plumes.

Sara Mooney's features are so extra good she might even risk some kind of hood.

Carrie Edna Flanders with 'queerly tread could wear a fruit basket on her head.

A witch's hat with high peaked crown would be just the thing for Carolyn Brown.

For Sara Ellis, blond and sweet we suggest a straw plaque with pink camellias on top and a bow in the back.

Evelyn Pound's so pretty she wouldn't look bad with a vegetable hat all trimmed with radish.

And so, my friends, I might go on, but I haven't time, and what is worse they're the dickens to rhyme.

As Ever, JANE.

Miss Mary Margaret Blitch who teaches at Swainsboro was at home for the weekend.

Mrs. Lowell Mallard, Mrs. Ralph Mallard and Mrs. Lawrence Mallard spent the weekend in Savannah Wednesday.

Mrs. Ralph Mallard of Annieston, Ala., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Mallard.

Mrs. K. L. Brewton of Estill, S. C. and Mrs. Alphonso DeLoach of Claxton were visitors in Statesboro Sunday afternoon. Mrs. H. Clark who had been visiting at Claxton returned home with them.

Carolyn Brignan in smart gown scoring a hit with Maude the Donkey at the "Circus" Roy Green was quite professional as the usual comedy type Englishman. Romance runs rampant in the springtime. We offer as evidence the fact that popular young couple were seen viewing a lot on the Portat road and probably visualizing a honeymoon cottage there. Also that pretty curly-haired sisleleady in a store on South Main is wearing a lovely diamond.

Glimpses here and there: Corner lot cleaned off where Northcut house burned. We hear that a young business woman is going to build a house there and induce mama and papa to come to town. Board Of Education Elects New School Superintendent

S. H. Sherman Is Elected To Head Statesboro Schools

HIS ELECTION FOLLOWS LOCAL BOARD'S FAILURE TO RE-ELECT SUPT. C. E. WOLLETT

S. H. Sherman, for the past eight years superintendent of schools at Jessup, has been elected to head the Statesboro public schools. He was announced last week by Mr. Fred T. Lanier, chairman of the board of education.

Mr. Sherman, according to Mr. Lanier, accepted the position Wednesday night of last week. Mr. Sherman is well known throughout the state as one of the leading school executives. During the eight years he has been at Jessup he has seen the school there take its place with the top ranking school systems in the state. He taught at the Teachers College summer session for two summers and is well known in Statesboro.

Mr. Sherman married the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Lev Martin, a former resident of Statesboro. Mr. Sherman's election followed the local board of education's failure to re-elect Supt. C. E. Wollett who succeeded Mr. R. M. Motts two years ago. Mr. Wollett worked under Mr. Motts for nine years before he became Superintendent. He is at present the secretary of the district high school association. He has been working on a higher degree at Duke University and plans to return there this summer.

Bulloch Voters Must Qualify Before May 8

SEVEN PUBLIC OFFICERS IN BULLOCH COUNTY TO BE UP FOR ELECTION IN GENERAL ELECTION

B. H. Ramsey, Secretary and Treasurer of the Bulloch County Democratic Executive Committee, this week announced the ruling recently made by Attorney General M. J. Yeomans regarding the General Election which will be held in November 8, 1938.

According to the ruling, Mr. Ramsey stated, if one wishes to vote in the State Primary Election to be held in September of this year and in the General Election on November 8, one must pay all poll taxes due, which means 1937, and qualify on or before May 8, 1938. Mr. Ramsey added that since May 8 comes on Sunday this year, the safe time to do so is to pay the poll tax and qualify on Saturday, May 7, even though the law usually provides that where a deadline falls on Sunday it may be met on the following Monday.

The General Election this year will be on November 8, hence all poll taxes must be paid six months prior to that date, which will be May 8.

Before a citizen may vote in a General Election, he or she must have been duly registered, and he or she must be on the voter's list prepared by the county registrars and filed with the Clerk of the Superior Court. Poll taxes are levied as of January 1st of each year, and are due on December 20th of each year, and if not paid, when due, are thus in default after December 20th of that respective year.

The officers in Bulloch county that come up for election are: Chairman of the county commissioners and the two board members, the Judge of the City Court and two representatives. It is Bulloch's time for senator from this district. All the state house officers from the Governor on down, the congressmen and one U. S. Senator are up for election.

Harry L. Brown, assistant secretary of agriculture and former Georgia Extension director, will be the principal speaker at a gathering sponsored by the Soil Conservation Service in Gainesville, April 26.

Bulloch Countians Approved For Loans Under Tenant Act

JAMES O. RUSHING AND WILLIAM E. DEAL TO BUY FARMS UNDER BANKHEAD - JONES ACT

Mr. Nathan R. Bennett, Jr., Rehabilitation Supervisor in charge of the Farm Security program in Bulloch county announced here Saturday that loans to James O. Rushing and William E. Deal have been approved for the purchase of farms under the Bankhead-Jones Tenant Act.

Mr. Bennett stated that Mr. Rushing of Register will purchase 75 acres of land which is part of his grandmother's estate, which is now owned by Mrs. J. M. Williams of Brooklet. Mr. Deal will purchase 140 acres of land known as the Dan Riggs place near Westside.

Both of the purchases have been completed, based on the clearing of the titles to the two farms.

Under the plan loans will be available for the purchase of five farms in Bulloch county to those five applicants who receive the approval of the regional office of the Farm Security program. The applications of the other three are now awaiting final approval, and will be announced at a later date.

When the plan the loan is made for the purchase of a farm by a tenant farmer whose ability, character, and experience warrants such a loan. The farmer has forty years in which to repay the loan, in payments amounting to $43.20 per year per thousand dollars at a 3 per cent rate of interest. The Act provides that the farmer may make larger payments in years of plenty and less in lean years. However the purchaser cannot repay the loan in full under five years without the approval of the Secretary of Agriculture.

The loans are made to farm families whether on their own land or as tenants on rented land, who are unable to secure proper credit from other sources to make a crop or to purchase needed livestock and equipment.
